Present in the region for about 30 years, EDF aims to support your energy challenges, from low carbon electricity production to smart energy services.
Producing electricity to meet ongoing demand in a fast-changing and dynamic market.

The rapid growth of Asian population leads to an increasing demand for generation and distribution of safe, affordable and low-carbon electricity. From development and design to construction and commissioning, our innovative references enable us to intervene at any stage of the development of innovative power plants. Through a range of diverse solutions involving the use of hydro-power, nuclear, thermal, biomass, wind and solar power, the Group favour the most appropriate and low-carbon solutions answering the energy transition expectations.

Strengthening your networks to improve the performance of your power grids

The studies and projects that we have conducted all have been provided with wide scope of solutions in order to meet your requirements. We help you to develop new lines, to reinforce and to improve the performances of your grids. We offer active consultancy services by proposing innovative solutions with a particular focus on safety and to improve the performance of your networks.

Our customers
- Electricity producers
- Public and private companies
- Ministries, public agencies
- Electric utilities
- Civil operators
- Electricity producers

A global expertise for tailored and innovative energy solutions

For many years, EDF Group has been investing in nuclear networks and production as well as in thermal, wind and solar power plants. As a major hub to take part in the new technological projects carried out in Asia. As a major hub to take part in the new technological projects carried out in Asia. As a major hub to take part in the new technological projects carried out in Asia, the Group to share its industrial expertise and cutting edge technology with local players and to establish long-term, Solarard and mutually beneficial relations.

A committed long-term partner

In Asia and especially in China, EDF has been developing nuclear and financial services and has conducted the R&D with the Group to share its industrial expertise and cutting edge technology with local players and to establish long-term, Solarard and mutually beneficial relations.